

A floor plan of an apartment, labeled 2.05.02, with a total area of approximately 16.90 m². The plan is divided into several rooms and utility areas. On the left, there is a kitchen area with a yellow background, featuring a sink, a two-burner stove, and a refrigerator labeled 'MW' with three asterisks (***) above it. A curved door is shown in this area. To the right of the kitchen is a bathroom with a white grid pattern, containing a toilet, a sink, and a bathtub. A curved door is also present in the bathroom. Below the kitchen and bathroom is a central hallway with a yellow background, containing a door with a diagonal line and a dashed-line triangle. To the right of the hallway is a bedroom with a yellow background, featuring a bed and a rectangular table. At the bottom of the plan is a living area with a light gray background, containing a large yellow sofa and a yellow coffee table. A red arrow points to the top edge of the plan. The overall layout is compact and efficient.
